

CURRICULUM VITAE

Thomas F. Murphy, M.D.

Experience:

Extensive experience with invasive and interventional cardiology, with greater than 5000 cardiac catheterizations performed.
Extensive non-invasive experience of all non-invasive modalities.
Founder and Co-Director of Cardiac Rehabilitation Unit, San Jose, Ca.

Professional Societies:

Fellow, American College of Cardiology
Fellow, The Society for Cardiac Angiography and Intervention

California Medical Association
American Medical Association

Certification:

Board Certified Internal Medicine
Board Certified Cardiovascular Diseases

Professional Appointments:

Prior Governor of the Northern California Region for the Society for Cardiac Angiography and Interventions.
Prior Associate Professor of Medicine, Stanford University Medical Center

Prior Director of Acute Care unit, Santa Teresa Community Hospital, San Jose, Ca
Prior Chief of Medicine, Santa Teresa Community Hospital, San Jose, Calif.
Prior Director of Coronary Care Unit, O'Connor Hospital, San Jose, Calif..

Staff Appointments:

Eisenhower Hospital

Education and Training:

Undergraduate School: Loyola University, Chicago, Illinois, B.S. Biology
Medical School.- Loyola University, Stritch Medical School, Chicago,
Illinois

Internship: Northwestern University Hospital, Chicago, Illinois, Straight Medical

Residency: Northwestern University Hospital, Chicago, Illinois,

Fellowship: Santa Clara Valley Medical Center, San Jose, Calif., Stanford
University affiliated program.

Military:

Military Group Surgeon, Vietnam,
Awarded two Bronze Stars, Vietnam

Practice:

Solo clinical practice of Consultative, Invasive and Interventional Cardiology , San Jose California
Desert Cardiology Consultants' Medical Group, Inc. Rancho Mirage, California
2001 to present